The official notification lists 24 public holidays. It also separately identifies 1 April 2026 as a bank-only holiday for annual account closing.

Additional Maharashtra Government Holiday: Bhau Beej

Holiday	Date	Day	Applicable Category
Bhau Beej	11 November 2026	Wednesday	Specified government offices, state PSUs and local bodies

The Bhau Beej holiday is particularly important when preparing a Maharashtra government-office calendar because it is separate from the original 24 public holidays. The official notification specifically describes it as an additional holiday for the listed government and local-body establishments.

Maharashtra Bank Holidays 2026

Maharashtra bank holidays 2026 should not be confused with the complete state government holiday list. The Maharashtra Government's 2026 notification specifically declares 1 April 2026 as a bank-only holiday to enable banks to close their yearly accounts. The notification clearly states that this holiday does not apply to government offices.

Bank Holiday	Date	Day	Purpose
Annual Bank Account Closing Holiday	1 April 2026	Wednesday	To enable banks to close yearly accounts

Banks may also observe regular weekly closures and holidays under the applicable banking calendar. The Reserve Bank of India holiday system distinguishes holidays under the Negotiable Instruments Act and notes that scheduled and non-scheduled banks observe public holidays on the second and fourth Saturdays. Therefore, customers should check the applicable RBI bank-holiday calendar or their individual bank before planning an important branch visit.

For example, a date appearing in the Maharashtra Government public holiday notification does not mean that every banking service will be unavailable in exactly the same way. Digital banking, ATMs, UPI and other electronic services can continue to operate even when physical bank branches are closed.
